PRESS RELEASE

TXT Group and Aras Corporation Partner to Drive Innovation in the Industrial Sector

- TXT e-solutions S.p.A. announces a strategic partnership with Aras Corporation, appointing TXT E-Tech as the Primary Territory Partner for Italy, Slovenia, and Croatia, bolstering its role in digital transformation.
- This partnership enhances TXT Group's offerings in the manufacturing sector, building upon its acquisition of DM and the DMP MES/MoM platform in July 2022 and strengthening its position as a leader in providing ICT solutions for industrial engineers while expanding its portfolio of Smart Solutions.
- Integrating Aras Innovator PLM solution with MES, ERP, and CRM applications enables seamless management of critical information throughout the product lifecycle, enhancing operational efficiency and supporting customer sustainability objectives.

Milano, 6 March 2024, 11:00

TXT e-solutions S.p.A. (TXT), Global Digital Enabler operating as an end-to-end provider of software engineering services, high-tech Smart Solutions and Digital Advisory to support the digital transformation of products and processes, announces a new and strategic partnership with Aras Corporation (ARAS), a leader in product lifecycle management (PLM) and digital thread solutions supporting the design, build and maintenance of complex products.

In the agreement with ARAS, TXT E-Tech is appointed Primary Territory Partner on the national and international territory, for Italy, Slovenia and Croatia, acting as the main reference for all activities in the territories mentioned above and previously carried out by the Italian branch of ARAS.

This partnership represents a further growth opportunity in the TXT Group's offering for the manufacturing sector, following the acquisition in July 2022 of DM and the DMP MES/MoM platform. TXT Group, already a sector leader with its ICT solutions to support industrial and production engineers, as well as planning, production and maintenance departments, will
